Praise Report: Lord, we thank you for the new encouragement; You give to those who asked for guidance. Thank you for our new converts. May we always give words of encouragement as we welcome them into our fellowship. Thank you for meeting with our youth during the youth rally Saturday evening. Young lives were changed. May we always support and encourage our young people, the future of our church. For keeping Your protective hand on our nation, help your leaders look to You for guidance as they make decisions that we affect us. For the many men and women in the armed forces who gave their lives to keep America safe.

God gave us a priceless gift; mother lavished us with true love and kindness. We were blessed to have her as our mother; she will live in our hearts forever.
